

Our single influent trough is divided into two trough's, each containing a Channel Monster CMD -XD and a JWCE Auger Monster®. After passing through the Channel Monster which reduces raw sewage and solids to a manageable size the influent passes through the Auger Monster. The rotating spiral captures and pulls particles upward, above the channel liquid level and out the discharge chute and into small dumpsters.