

Influent flows are pumped into an aerated grit chamber for grit removal. Removed grit is pumped to a hydrocyclone grit declassifier for dewatering and collection. The flow is the gravity fed to the primary clarifiers.